STAY WARM!

Winter Carnival

For the first time in four years, the Winter Carnival had snow. Therefore there was sledding and snow painting, as well as many indoor activities being held last Friday afternoon.

Winter Carnival is an event that has been held by the Student Advisory Council for many years. The purpose is to involve students in spirit building school activities that don't cost anything. Even the ice cream treats and hot chocolate are free. During Covid, all the events were all outside. For the past three years, everything had to be indoors because it was either raining or there was no snow for sledding. There are usually about ten activities, which vary slightly each year.

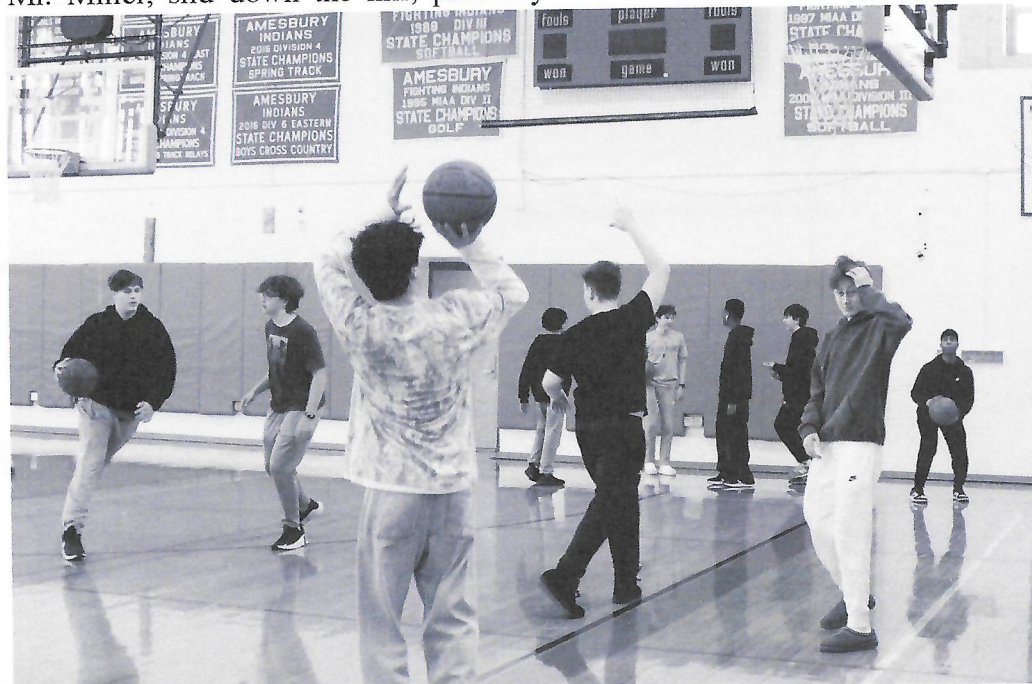

Every year there is 3x3 basketball, which is one of the most popular activities for guys. Some people spend the whole 90 minutes there. In the main lobby there were twelve chess sets. Chess is always popular, as is the scavenger hunt. People who completed the hunt successfully received a bag of M and M's. So many people did this event that we ran out of candy. The answers could all be found somewhere in the lobby, cafe hall, and gym. Further down the hall toward the fine arts department were three jenga sets, which got plenty of use. Mr. Perez took over one of the chess tables for a group which wanted to play MAGIC. This will very likely be added as a regular event next year.

Out in front of the school were two activities - snow painting and sledding. Those who did the snow painting found out that food coloring doesn't come off very easily. Meanwhile, near the bike rack were stacked eight sleds and four sliding saucers. It took a few minutes for students to discover where the sledding was, but eventually many students, and Mr. Miller, slid down the hill, probably for the first time in years.

The last location was the cafeteria. There were four cornhole setups, ice cream, wooden jigsaw puzzles, and karaoke. A surprising number of students, and Mr. Brown, actually were willing to sing karaoke. A photographer for the Newburyport News actually showed up and photographed some of them.

EVENTS PHOTOGRAPHY

If you attended sports games lately, you may have noticed some new photographers. In this issue we are featuring the work of some of these new photographers. You won't see a spread for John DePolo however, because we used DePolo's wrestling photos in last week's article on wrestling. We appreciate the work of these budding event photographers. If you'd like to join them, the person to see is Mrs. Sconce.

Right: Thanks to John DePolo, we had wrestling pics.

RUNNERS PAY BUCKS

The Class of 2026 brought 17 volunteers to the Hampton Half Marathon & 5K on Sunday, March 2. They were spread out amongst 3 different stops, handing out water and Gatorade. The class will make $40 per volunteer. Volunteers included: Charlotte Costigan, Abby Morin, Lyvia Busch, Cailee LeBlanc, Sophia Huynh, Haley Jezowski, Sammy Porter, Eli Kobel, Noah Blouin, Ollie Peters, Josh Roberts, Maddie Clark, Maggie Francis, Max Kerstein, Ethan Kirby, Mrs. Alley, and Mrs. T.

BUDGET BLUES

It's budget season again, and the fights over money are likely to be even worse than last year. Superintendent Elizabeth McAndrews is faced with finding massive cuts and no one is happy. So far, the most apparent protests are over moving AIHS to another location, most likely the high school in a separate wing yet to be determined. Their current building is being rented, and moving to a location already owned by the school system would save $200,000. Among the staff cuts are the librarian. You may have seen the posters around about that. Look for a complete list of proposed cuts in next week's issue.

A GREAT RUN

Varsity Hockey

The Amesbury-Whittier Hockey team's journey through the state tournament ended Wednesday night, falling to second seated Woburn 1-6 at Stoneham Arena.

The Redhawks had nothing to be ashamed of however. The fact that the 26th seeded Redhawks made it to the quarter finals against more highly ranked teams was impressive. On Thursday, February 27th, Amesbury beat Walpole, the 7th seed, 4-1. The goals were scored by Whittier's Wes Ackerman (3) and Bodie Marcotte (1). Goalie Nick Boothroyd had 32 saves.

On Sunday, March 1, the Redhawks pulled off another upset, this time a 1-0 victory over Boston Latin school, the 10th seed, The only goal was scored by Bodie Marcotte at the very end of the second period.

The team gets pumped to start the game.

BIRDS, BEST & WORST

Tweet!

By Tori Woodsom

In less than two weeks, Spring will begin! Alongside with flowers blooming, and rain falling, birds will re-appear for the first time in months. There are over 10,000 known species of birds. Here are some of the best, and worst.

Best: Crows - Crows are cool because they are smart and hold funerals for dead crows, wowie!

Worst: Chickens - Getting chased by a chicken is #traumatizing and I would not recommend.

Best: Finches - They invented evolution!

Worst: Turkey - Not only are they ugly, but they also taste yucky.

Best: Penguins - I gave Happy Feet five stars on Letterboxd!

Worst: Woodpeckers - The loudest bird ...

Best: Bald Eagles - AMERICA RAHHHHHH !!

Worst: Toucans - Their beaks are scary :(

Best: Owl - Wise core...

Worst: Seagulls - One time I was attacked and they ate my french fries : /

MIA TONANI

Senior Profile

By Alice Moulton

If asked, Mia would say the her most unique aspect is her hair. Her greatest accomplishment is how far she's come and how good of a friend she is:)

In school, Mia would say her favorite teacher is Mr. Osgood, as she can always rely on him for conversation. This is probably why history is her favorite subject! If Mia could have changed anything about her high school career, she would have wanted to get her license earlier. Overall, Mia's favorite part of high school was the friends she made, especially Jaden Faria.

Outside of school, Mia likes to put on makeup, make art, and listen to music. She also likes to listen to knowledge, and...three more wishes!

If they made a movie about Mia's life, she would want to be played by Jack Black. I...am Steve... Mia would say her oddest habits are biting her nails and overusing the phrase "slay." If she would want to be able to teleport. Whoosh!

When Mia was a kid, she wanted to be a judge because of Ruth Bader Ginsburg. Now, she plans on going to college and working in a law firm. Her final advice to the senior class is to realise that everything happens for a reason... We hope Mia's future is Mitski, watch Bojack Horseman, and play Plants Vs. Zombies. If she were granted three wishes, she would want to be a millionaire, to have infinite bright, and that all of her dreams come true!

AIDEN NEALE

Senior Profile

By Alice Moulton

A i d e n , otherwise known as Mr. President, would say the most unique thing about him is that he can name every first lady of the United States. A n o t h e r accomplishment of Aiden is meeting nearly every presidential candidate in 2024. If Aiden could describe himself with one word, he would say that he is odd.

In school, Aiden is the president of Rho Kappa. While he appreciates every teacher, his favorite is Mrs. Lannon. Overall, Aiden's favorite class would be American Studies, but a part of him also wishes he would have taken APUSH. So far, Aiden's favorite year of high school is senior year. Overall, Aiden's favorite part of high school was going above and beyond for every Spirit Day!

Outside of school, Aiden Neale likes to watch the news.

Aiden also likes to eat cookies, watch money. Cha-ching!

The Golden Girls, and shop at Goodwill. If he were granted three wishes, he would want a tour of the White House, unbreakable sunglasses, and an endless supply of

If Aiden could meet anyone alive or dead, he would obviously want to meet his biggest hero Betty White. The greatest mystery he would want to see explained is J . F . K ' s assassination. If Aiden could change one thing about his life, he would want more muscle mass. He would also want to make underclassmen walk faster in the hallways...

As a kid, Aiden wanted to be a zookeeper. Now, he wants to go to college for political science. Quite the turnaround! His advice to any future highschoolers is to not take everything too seriously! While this advice is certainly helpful, we hope Aiden takes the lessons he has learned from AHS seriously as he marches into the future!
